

MURDER GOES SOUTH
A WRITERS' FORUM
Projecting the Beauty, History & Allure
Of the South in the Mystery Novel
Saturday, January 29, 2005
9:30 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

PROGRAM

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION—Linda Evans, President FOSL

9:30 a.m.-10:30 a.m.--1st TOPIC—THE BUTLER DID IT:
Southern Characters with Criminal Intent

The Writers
Carolyn Haines
Cathy Pickens
E. Joan Sims Garcia

10:45 a.m.-12:00 p.m.—2nd Topic—THE SUSPENSE IS KILLING ME:
How do you keep the plot tight and the Tension high?

The Writers
Beverly Connor
Brandon Massey
Cheryl Ritzel

12:00-2:15 p.m. During this time you can choose two workshops and a lunch from five simultaneous 45-minute sessions featuring a forensic lab by the Smyrna Police Dept., Knives and their Uses by Atlanta writer Walter Sorrells, K-9 Police Dog with Sgt. Frank Durrance, a Q & A on finding a literary agent by Agent Holly Mclure of Maxx Sullivan Literary Agency, St. Simons Island, GA, or a boxed lunch. The schedule of times for each session is listed below:

12:00-12:45p.m. Lunch
Forensic Lab
K-9 Police Dog—Sgt. Frank Durrance
Knives & their Usage—Walter Sorrells

- 12:45-1:30 p.m. Lunch
Forensic Lab
K-9 Police Dog-Sgt. Frank Durrance
Finding a Literary Agent-Holly McClure
- 1:30-2:15 p.m. Lunch
Knives & their Usage-Walter Sorrells
Finding a Literary Agent-Holly McClure
Forensic Lab
- 2:15 p.m.--3:15 p.m. 3rd Topic--SOUTHERN DETOURS:
What's Locale got to do with it?
- The Writers
Steve Brown
Beverly Connor
Carolyn Hart
- 3:15-4:00 p.m. PANEL DISCUSSION WITH AUDIENCE
Moderator-Jim Wooten, Associate Editor of the Editorial Page at The Atlanta
Journal Constitution
- 4:00-5:00 p.m. MEET THE WRITERS-BOOK SIGNING